

MORE BLOOD MORE LIFE

The youngest Central Excise & Service tax Commissionerate of the country celebrated Central Excise Day by organizing a blood donation camp at its office premises in collaboration with the Guwahati Medical College and Hospital (GMCH) on 23rd February, 2011. An eight-member team of doctors/technicians/staff of Guwahati Medical College & Hospital conducted the blood donation of more than 50 officers/staff of the Central Excise formation at Guwahati.

On being approached by the media, Sri A.K. Jain, Commissioner expressed that such camp has been organized for the first time and expresses the need for organizing many more of such camps in the backdrop of vast population of this country who are below poverty line and expressed satisfaction that the Department is humbly working towards a social cause. He expressed his thanks to GMCH, the electronic / press media and all other concerned for their active participation in making the occasion successful.

The efforts and contribution of the Commissionerate was felicitated by Assam State AIDS Control Society, Guwahati at a function held on the World Blood Donor day, the 14th June, 2011.
